

Academic Physician – Pediatric Infectious Diseases
The University of Chicago: Biological Sciences Division: Department of Pediatrics

Position Description

The University of Chicago's Department of Pediatrics, Section of Pediatric Infectious Diseases, seeks a full-time faculty member at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor. Clinical duties include providing consultative infectious disease inpatient patient care, development of clinical protocols, and outpatient care. Direct patient care responsibilities include managing patients with general and complex pediatric infectious disease needs. Limited off-hours and occasional weekend coverage are expected. Other duties include teaching and supervision of trainees and medical students, and scholarly activity. Primary placement will be at Comer Children's Hospital in the Hyde Park neighborhood of Chicago and may include other locations affiliated with the University of Chicago. Academic rank and compensation (including a generous package of fringe benefits) is dependent on qualifications.

Comer Children's Hospital is a full-service children's hospital located in the heart of the city of Chicago. The University of Chicago Department of Pediatrics is committed to providing superior, compassionate healthcare to all children. We strive to provide an education and training experience that fosters the next generation of national and international leaders in child health. The department includes more than 130 full-time faculty members, clinical associates, and postdoctoral researchers. Opportunities abound for participation in clinical research, clinical trials, systematic local and/or national quality improvement projects, and other scholarly activities.

Prior to the start of employment, qualified applicants must: 1) have a doctoral degree or equivalent, 2) hold or be eligible for medical licensure in the State of Illinois, and 3) be Board certified or eligible in Pediatrics. New fellowship graduates are welcome to apply.

To be considered, those interested must apply through The University of Chicago's Academic Recruitment job board, which uses Interfolio to accept applications: <http://apply.interfolio.com/98899>. Applicants must upload: CV, cover letter. Review of applications ends when the position is filled.

Equal Employment Opportunity Statement
