

Company: University of Colorado | CU Anschutz Medical Campus School of Medicine - The Department of Pediatrics, Section of Infectious Disease
Job Title: Assistant Professor

Brief description of the position: The Department of Pediatrics, Section of Infectious Disease has an opening for a full-time Assistant Professor.

The University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus is a world-class medical destination at the forefront of transformative science, medicine, education, and patient care. The campus encompasses the University of Colorado health professional schools, more than 60 centers and institutes, and two nationally ranked independent hospitals - UHealth University of Colorado Hospital and Children's Hospital Colorado - that treat more than two million adult and pediatric patients each year. Innovative, interconnected and highly collaborative, the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus delivers life-changing treatments, patient care and professional training and conducts world-renowned research fueled by over $650 million in research grants. For more information, visit www.cuanschutz.edu.

Nature of Work:

The University of Colorado School of Medicine (UCSOM), Department of Pediatrics, Section of Infectious Disease seeks an MD/DO board certified/eligible in Pediatric Infectious Diseases and Pediatrics at the Assistant Professor rank to complement the activities of our Infectious Diseases Section in Colorado Springs. This position will be primarily based at the Children's Hospital Colorado (CHCO) Colorado Springs facility but will serve some weeks as Infectious Diseases Attending on the Anschutz Medical Campus and will work in close collaboration with the section overall. The role will provide infectious diseases consultation and follow up care to inpatients and outpatients for a wide range of conditions and participate in the teaching and academic mission of the ID section. The role will participate in hospital epidemiology and infection prevention and antimicrobial stewardship.

Examples of Work Performed:

Infectious diseases consultation for inpatients, outpatients, and telemedicine at Children's Hospital Colorado facilities in Colorado Springs, the Anschutz Medical Campus, and telehealth in the CHCO network of care providing independent care for patients on an inpatient and outpatient basis. Includes shared holiday, weekend and night call responsibilities.

Communicate with community providers regarding general questions as well as providing expert clinical provider-to-provider professional advice regarding specific patients.

Supervise and educate various levels of learners and advanced practice providers Coordinate multi-disciplinary care with other hospital and outpatient services When appropriate teach in the fellowship and residency programs. This includes bedside and some didactic teaching.

The MD may also be expected to contribute lectures for the healthcare-related schools at the University of Colorado and participate in other continuing medical education offered by Infectious Diseases Collaborate with Infection Prevention and Control programs as needed.

Coverage as needed for physician support for occupational health team based at hospital. Includes blood borne pathogen assessment, contagious disease exposures to staff, influenza and other vaccination programs.

Participate in Antimicrobial Stewardship rounding and provider education related to use of antimicrobials.

Develop academic and scholarly work in line with the faculty member's interest.

Special Instructions to Applicants: Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Applications are accepted electronically ONLY at www.cu.edu/cu-careers. Refer to requisition number: 25764 Qualifications you are seeking: Qualifications

Minimum Qualifications:

MD or DO; must be board certified/eligible in Pediatric Infectious Diseases and Pediatrics. Must achieve board certification in Pediatric Infectious Diseases within two (2) years of completing fellowship. Continuous Maintenance of Certification is required Active Colorado state license and DEA certification, or ability to apply Meet all Children's Hospital Colorado credentialing requirements and continuous active medical staff status Applicants must meet minimum qualifications at the time of hire

Conditions of Employment:

Must successfully pass a 10-panel drug test through Children's Hospital Colorado Must be willing and able to pass a national criminal and sex-offender background check Role will have overnight and weekend call responsibilities.

Preferred Qualifications:

Experience in hospital infection prevention Experience in hospital epidemiology Experience in antimicrobial stewardship Experience in quality improvement processes Experience in teaching residents and/or medical students.

Competencies- Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

Advanced knowledge of antimicrobials and their use expected.

Able to work well with all provider styles and types Excellent communication skills and ability to build rapport with referring providers Able to design, implement and evaluate process change in hospital systems High customer service skills, team-based patient care, and ability to meet productivity targets are expected The applicant should be able to work well both independently and as part of a team. Ability to work collaboratively with Advance Practice Providers Ability to be well-organized and efficient in their work and be able to prioritize patient and system needs appropriately. The applicant should be highly committed to quality improvement, family centered care, and evidence based practice.

Phone: 7207776981

Fax: 7207777295

Address:

13123 E 16th Avenue

Aurora, Colorado 80045

Website: <https://cu.taleo.net/careersection/2/jobdetail.ftl?job=25764&lang=en>