Salary range:

Job Title: Pediatric Infectious Disease Physician

Job posting expiration date: 06/21/2023

Brief description of the position: Blank Children’s Hospital in Des Moines, IA is seeking a full-time Board Certified/Board Eligible Pediatric Infectious Diseases Physician to join a well-established practice in Des Moines, Iowa. The physician in this position will be primarily responsible for inpatient consultations and outpatient clinic, and will evaluate and treat neonates, children, and adolescents with a wide range of infectious diseases including HIV, tuberculosis, and congenital infections. The Blank Children’s Pediatric Infectious Disease Clinic also holds a dedicated Refugee Health Clinic and a Travel Clinic. Additional opportunities exist to engage in the hospital’s Infection Prevention Control and Antimicrobial Stewardship programs and to participate in medical education.

Blank Children’s Hospital is a full-service 108-bed tertiary care hospital that provides pediatric medical and surgical subspecialty care to the residents of central Iowa, a population of more than 1 million. It is a service of UnityPoint Health, which is listed among the ‘150 Top Places to Work in Healthcare’ in the U.S. (Becker’s Hospital Review, 2022). While it shares a campus with Iowa Methodist Medical Center, Blank Children’s Hospital maintains a distinct identity with its storied history, community outreach, and modern facility boasting 100% private rooms. The hospital has a 44-bed Level IIIB NICU, a 12-bed PICU, and a dedicated Pediatric Emergency Department. The Blank Children’s Pediatric Residency Program is an ACGME accredited program affiliated with Carver College of Medicine at the University of Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa is a family oriented, inclusive community with a population of more than 600,000. Des Moines ranks #14 as the best place to live and #12 as the most affordable place to live in the United States (U.S. News & World Report, 2022). It boasts a vibrant downtown with a nationally recognized Farmer’s Market and award-winning arts and entertainment opportunities, as well as an active outdoor-centric community with 800 miles of connected recreational trails. There are excellent public and private education system options available from primary school through graduate professional degrees within the Des Moines Metropolitan Area.

We offer a competitive compensation and benefits package.
